

C-max

c-max nuffsaid boss Born in bustling Lagos State in Nigeria C-Max has always had a passion and interest in music. His most memorable influences are top rap, hip hop, hi life and drum and bass artistes accross genres over the 70's, 80's and 90's. With a passion and zest for the arts, a love for music and rap hip hop tunes and after spending some time as supporting artiste and background for other big names, he moved into writing and arranging his own vocals. CMax joined a choir at 14, wrote my first song in 1996, recorded his first song in 2000 and his first single 'Oya' released in 2003 was a hit on local radio stations. He has also feautured in collabs with, Dougle six of (m.i.p), Shailoque, 01, Bj, Horus, Young Dinero and Sain goint on to tour the country with David g in 2009. He developed his own niche influenced by big names on the American hip hop, rhythm and blues, jazz, soul and rap scene and in his own words "the flow was tight, the swag was rite, i enjoyed the scene, the talent and finally knew there was no stopping me". More About C-MAX "I remain and am as ever constantly working to deliver and satisfy fans worldwide. I know the Nigerian Hiphop/rap scene has grown impressively over the last decade, and the introduction of fresh ideas, talent, new and original vocals are on the menu. My most recent Mission working on 'SOLOLOQUIES' fresh is doing well, thanks to my fans and my support network and yes aint no stopping me now
